PASTOR NEIL REDENBAUGH

Genesis 37: The Man, the Myth, the Legend

[today's outline is a bit different. Use it to record what seems most meaningful to you]

Today's sermon is about _____

Why does the Bible record stories about real people?

What have I learned about God's character or way of interacting with people through this story?

What have I discovered about myself through this story?

What difference does this make for me this next week?

Other things that I want to remember:

Digging Deeper

This week's passages (keep in mind God's use of suffering to bring new life):

Monday: Mark 15-16 - sit with the Easter story one more time!

Tuesday: Isaiah 53

Wednesday: John 12.20-32

Thursday: Philippians 3.1-14

Friday: Genesis 39-40 - pre-read the upcoming sermon text!

Weekend: Review the most meaningful passage of the week.

Each day this week you are invited to read the day's passage and then respond to the following questions. Take special note of how the passage relates to Joseph and/or to you. You might find it beneficial to use a journal or notebook to record insights.

1. Read the passage prayerfully, listening for the voice of God and asking him to speak to you.
2. Record or write down the word, phrase, or verse that God impresses upon you.
3. Reflect and write down what it is about this word, phrase or verse that is meaningful to you.
4. Respond by writing a prayer or recording what it is that you think the Lord wants you to do in response to his word ("Be doers of the word and not hearers only" James 1.22).
