TRIVIA // The first ascent of Shark's Fin, a 4000 foot icy granite wall on India's Meru Mountain, was not until 2008. The climber and film director Jimmy Chin tells the story of how Conrad Anker, Renan Ozturk and he accomplished the feat in the face of avalanche and injury in his highly-praised documentary, Meru. Last Sunday night Chin's film Free Solo, which recounts Alex Honhold's white-knuckle climb of El Capitan, won an Academy Award for Best Documentary Film.
